

2004 AAPD Foundation Graduate Student Research Award Finalists

Suzanne E. Bird, "Effectiveness and acceptance of infant and toddler toothbrushes," Columbus Children's Hospital and The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH

Kathleen S. Lim, "Comparison of ion-specific electrode and colorimetric testing of water fluoride." University of Pittsburgh School of Dental Medicine

Matthew F. Savage, "Early preventive dental visits: Effects on subsequent utilization and cost." University of North Carolina

Karin Weber-Gasparoni, "A comparison of 3 educational interventions in ECC prevention." University of Iowa

Bamini Blau, "Comparison of Crest spinbrush and a manual toothbrush in children."
University of Illinois at Chicago

Justin W. Cathers, "A comparison of two meperidine-hydroxyzine regimens for sedation." Baylor College of Dentistry Shannon A. Butler, "A comparison of pulpotomies utilizing ferric sulfate and formacresol." University of Michigan

Kristina D. Coffield, "The psychosocial impact of developmental dental defects in amelogenesis imperfecta." University of North Carolina

(left to right) Graduate Student Research Award finalists (GSRA): Shannon A. Butler, Kathleen S. Lim, Suzanne E. Bird, Karin Weber-Gasparoni, Bamini Blau, Justin W. Cathers, Matthew F. Savage and Foundation President Joel H. Berg. (2004 GSRA finalist not pictured: Kristina D. Coffield.)