AAPD Names New Board Officers and Trustees at AAPD 2019 in Chicago

CHICAGO (May 29, 2019) – The American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry (AAPD), the leading authority on children's oral health, inducted the new president and other officers and trustees for the new AAPD board of trustees in Chicago, Ill., on May 26, 2019.

Kevin Donly, D.D.S., M.S., President. Donly is currently a Professor and Chair of the Department of Developmental Dentistry and Professor in the Department of Pediatrics at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio. He received his D.D.S. in 1984, certificate in pediatric dentistry in 1986, and M.S. in 1986 from the University of Iowa. He is board certified in pediatric dentistry. Previous positions include Professor and Associate Director of the Center for Clinical Studies at the University of Iowa, Associate Professor, Pediatric Dentistry at the University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston and Associate Professor, the University of Texas Medical School. He served a four-year term as the Pediatric Dentistry Commissioner for the Commission on Dental Accreditation. He has published over 350 chapters, manuscripts and abstracts associated with pediatric dentistry and dental restorative materials research and clinical utilization. His presidential agenda will include working closely with the AAPD's Safety Committee to develop processes to ensure pediatric dentistry is a leader in workplace and patient safety, continued monitoring of the sedation environment and protecting the safe and effective use of sedation in pediatric dental offices, and supporting AAPD's legislative agenda including title VII funding and support of the Student Loan Refinancing and Restoration Act. Donly will support AAPD Councils and Committees to address their charges and to serve the members of our organization.

Jessica Y. Lee, D.D.S., M.P.H., Ph.D., President-Elect. Lee is the Demeritt Distinguished Professor and Chair of the Department of Pediatric Dentistry at the University of North Carolina. She is also a Professor in the Department of Health Policy and Management in the Gillings School of Global Public Health at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She received her M.P.H. and D.D.S. degrees from Columbia University and her certificate in Pediatric Dentistry and Ph.D. in Health Policy and Management from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she was also a NIDCR National Research Service Award recipient. She is a board certified pediatric dentist and an active member of the medical staff at UNC Hospitals, and practices in the Dental Faculty Practice in the School of Dentistry. She has authored over 100 peer-reviewed manuscripts, abstracts and book chapters. She is involved in teaching, clinical practice and research, and maintains several funded research grants. Her primary research interests are in infant oral health, access to dental care for young children and health services. Lee is the recipient of numerous teaching and research awards including the 2008 AAPD Jerome Miller "For the Kids" Award. In 2010, she received the Presidential Early Career Award for Scientist and Engineers from President Barack Obama. In 2011, she was named the "Pediatric Dentist of the Year" by the AAPD.

Jeannie Beauchamp, D.D.S., Vice President. Beauchamp is a board certified pediatric dentist who is a private practitioner in Clarksville, Tenn. She earned her D.D.S. degree from the University of Tennessee (UT) Health Science Center in Memphis. She then completed her pediatric residency at UT in 1993. Beauchamp has been very involved in her community and church, as well as local, state and national dental societies. She has been active with the AAPD by serving on the Board of Trustees as Parliamentarian and the Southeast Trustee. She was also the chair of the AAPD's Council on Communications, the Political Action Committee Steering Committee and the Committee on Interprofessional Relations. Beauchamp served on both the American Dental Association's Council of Government Affairs and the Council on Access, Prevention and Interprofessional Relations. She was also an ADA representative on an Advisory Committee of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations. She has been a Tennessee delegate to the ADA House of Delegates for 14 years. Beauchamp is also active with the Tennessee Dental Association, currently serving as the Secretary. She is also a past president of the Eighth District Dental Society.

Amr Moursi, D.D.S., Ph.D., Secretary-Treasurer. Moursi is Professor and Chair of the Department of Pediatric Dentistry at the New York University College of Dentistry and on the Medical Staff at the New York University Langone Medical Center and the Bellevue Hospital Center.
